For the first three quarters of 2018, the Sino-US trade frictions emerged, global economic and trade activities faced many uncertainties, but global economy maintained steady growth, in particular, the economic fundamentals of the United States were strong. At the same time, steady growth of investment in fixed assets (including infrastructure) and increased demand for real estate drove the demand for engineering construction vehicles. In the overseas market, the US economy grew strongly, and there wads strong demand for marine skeletal trailers; the overall economic performance of Europe was good; emerging markets had bid farewell to the high-speed growth period supported by the oil economy and commodity trade, market uncertainties increased, and local political and financial risks increased. For the period from January to September 2018, the revenue of the road transportation vehicle business of the Group was RMB17,618 million (the corresponding period of last year: RMB14,655 million), representing a year-on-year increase of 20.21%.

For the domestic market, while the fire and rescue vehicle business is growing steadily, the focus is on the development of the aerial lift truck market and the active deployment of a strategy covering product lines and areas through two dimensions. (3) The automated logistics systems business: benefitting from core technologies including automated sorting, the integrating capacity of logistics systems has seen enhancement.
